Dr. Peter Corona, former Superintendent of California Schools K-12 will be our guest speaker. Based on his book, "Never Too Small to Succeed." How politics in the 1960's still affects us today and what can happen when you have commitment, will and desire to succeed. Dr. Corona is a very motivated speaker and has experiences and credentials an arm and a leg long.

 ANNOUNCEMENTS from Nancy***

The date of General Assembly conflicts with our General Meeting date in September. Therefore, we will meet the week following GA September 19, 2018. For our May meeting we have a lot to cover: We will be voting on the following. 1.) Donation to offset the hospitality room costs at GA. 2). Wither to send one or two alternates to the GA, (costs we cover, room for three nights, banquet, meals and transportation). Delegate is paid for by HQ. Any active member willing to attend the sessions and give a report at the September meeting should submit their name for consideration. If more than the allotted number submit their names a drawing will be the means of selecting the participant(s). Dollar amount will be available at the meeting.

In Memory

The following members have passed away this year: Lillian Davies, James Owen, Helen Rotert and Gary Engle a regular attendee at our meetings. May they rest in peace.
